

Exchange and Return Form

COLLAR

If your return or exchange is within 15 days of receipt of product, we will happily provide you with a pre-paid FedEx label to cover your return shipping, please call or email to request a label. If outside the 30-day window, we recommend you send your return to us via an insured and trackable service. Note that the State of California asks that all returning merchandise be cleaned prior to being sent back. Besides, we're also not super keen on opening up a box of dirty shorts, no matter how cool that Rorschach-esque mud pattern might be. If your return is received dirty, it will be sent back to you and can delay processing of your exchange.
